Main tour. Sunday 28th: gather at Heathrow hotel. Monday 29th: Kew Gardens, Kew Bridge Pumping Engines and Brentford Musical Museum. Tuesday 30th: Stonehenge, Salisbury. Wednesday 31st: Great Dorset Steam Fair. Thursday 1st September: West Somerset Railway, Minehead, plus a house visit. Friday 2nd: Bristol, Big Pit museum, Steamship Great Britain. Saturday 3rd: Roman & Georgian Bath, return to London.

Optional extension tour. Saturday 3rd: drive to Norwich. Sunday 5th: Thursford Collection, North Norfolk Railway. Monday 5th: Bardwell windmill, Bressingham Gardens and Steam Museum. Tuesday 6th: Burtey Fen organ museum, plus private visit. Wednesday 7th: Cotton Museum. Thursday 8th: return to Heathrow.

Registration will include all accommodation, buses, entry fees for all the planned attractions, all breakfasts and a few dinners. Airfare is not included. Costs are:

	Double Room, per person	Single Room
Convention	$1425	$1748
Extension	$925	$1115
Both tours	$2350	$2863

Cost is based on an exchange rate of 1 British Pound costing $1.9. The rate should be better than this and any excess funds will be returned after the Convention. Non-US attendees will be able to pay directly in Pounds.

No money is required with this Preliminary Registration. We need an idea of how many rooms will be needed, mainly in Salisbury. We may need to have a waiting list if interest exceeds the available rooms. Further Convention info will be mailed or e-mailed to those who show an interest in attending the England Convention. A deposit will be asked for at that time, with final payment due in early 2011.

Please indicate your interest by entering the number of people wanting each of the available options:
